

Practical

PAPER III

1. Karl Pearson Correlation coefficient, simple regression (Only Two Variables)
2. Straight line Curve Fitting, Interpolation – Binomial and Newton Method
3. Report Writing and Preparing of questionnaire
4. Vivo Voce.

Workshop on New Syllabus in Economics
as a third paper

Conducted on 13/09/2017 at Nightingale College for Girls, Alwar.
The following were the resource persons -

- 1.) Mr. Lokesh Bhatt (Convener BOS Economics RRBMU) Principal, Govt. College, Bibi Rani, Alwar.
- 2.) Mr. Shankar Lal (External member & Ex. Principal Govt. College, Dausa)
- 3.) Mr. R. C. Agarwal ( Principal, Govt. College, Govind Garh)
- 4.) Dr. Arun Singh(HOD, B.S.R. Govt. College, Alwar)

It was unanously resolved that the Practical Examination in Economics as a third paper in B.A. Part Ist(Collegiate and non - collegiate ) following marks of teaching period per week and marks distribution & Examination Syllabus per conducting practical examination -

1.) Period per week - Three hours per week per batch per practical (20 students each batch)

2.) Examination duration - Three hours

3.) Examination Scheme -

	Science	Arts
a) Max. Marks	50	50
b) Mini. Marks	18	18
c) Distribution of Marks

Whole Syllabus is divided into Four parts

Syllabus	Marks	Classwork
Part I 1) Economic Concept - various utilities(Computation) Averages (Calculation) 2) Demand and Supply Curve (Computation) Cost and Revenue Curves(Computation)	15	Four practicals in class  Four practicals in class
Part II 1) National Income(Computation) 2) Data Sorting, Filtering , Grouping Pivot Chart, Preparing Questionnaire and Schedule.	15	Four practicals in class

Part III
Report Writing

10

Allotted by the subject teacher

Part IV
Viva - Voca

10

One practical is required to attempt from Part Ist and Part IInd.

Special Note

- i) Problem will be solved by simple calculator.
- ii) All candidates (Collegiate and non- Collegiate) to prepare Report writing on allotted topic.
- iii) All non- collegiate candidates are required to attained 21 days training( Two hours per day). Certificate of the same has to be submitted at the time of final examination. For the same training fees will be decided by the university.