

POPULATIUON STUDIES

PAPER-II (3522)

MM-100

POPULATION PLANNING IN INDIA

1. Unit-I
2. Meaning and Objective of Population Policies. Basic Features and Perspectives of Population Policy.
3. Unit-II
4. Policies in the Context of Population Growth, Structure, Distribution and Quality of Population.
5. Unit-III
6. Population Planning related to Fertility, Mortality and Migration.
7. Unit-IV
8. National Health and Family Welfare Programme Primary Health Care and Reproductive Child Health Programme.
9. Unit-V
10. Population Planning and Projection Regarding Housing Water Supply, Sanitation, Transportation and Communication in India.

Book Recommended :

1. Bernard, Barelson, Population Policy Person Notices, Population Studies, July, 1971.
2. Bhende, A. and T. Kanitkar : Principles of Population Studies, Himalaya Publishing House, Bombay, 2000.
3. Kingsley, Davis, Population Policy Will Current Programme Succeed in Ashish Bose et al. Study in Demography, 1972.
4. United Nations: World Population Plan of Action Studies, Family Planning 5 (12) Dec, 1974.
5. W.H.O. Primary Health Care, International Conference on Primary Health Care, USSR, 1978.